A. Read.

Reshma is a garment worker in Dhaka. She's 18 years old. Her family came to Dhaka from a village eight years ago. There was river erosion in her village. They lost their home. So the family came to Dhaka. Reshma's father worked as a rickshaw driver, but he died in an accident.

Reshma's uncle Ratan helped the family. He found a small house for them at Kalyanpur. He took Reshma to a garment factory in Mirpur. She works there now. Her younger brother Babul goes to school. He's in Class 5. Her mother stitches "Nakshi Kathas" at home and sells them.

The garment factory is two kilometres from Reshma's house. In the morning, she walks to work. Some of her friends go by bus, rickshaw or scooter. She works from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Reshma likes to go to the cinema, but she doesn't have much free time or money for this. She often works extra hours until 6 p.m. so she can make more money.
